Case No. 2:12-cv-01560-MMD-GWF

ORDER

14 The Court has received the parties' Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order (#15) filed 15 January 14, 2013. The proposed Order before the Court does not comply with the requirements of 16 LR 26-1. LR 26-1(e)(1) sets a period of 180 days as a presumptively reasonable amount of time in 17 which to conduct discovery. The 180 days is measured from the date the first defendant answered 18 or otherwise appeared. Discovery plans requesting longer than 180 days from the date the first 19 defendant answers or appears require special scheduling review. Where such special scheduling 20 review is requested, the plan shall state the reasons why longer or different time periods should 21 apply. Accordingly,

22 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order (#15) is 23 denied, without prejudice.

24 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the parties are to file a revised Discovery Plan and 25 Scheduling Order in compliance with LR 26-1(d), including any request for special scheduling

1 review, no later than January 22, 2013. The revised discovery plan should state the reasons why a 2 longer discovery period should be granted.

3 DATED this 15th day of January, 2013.
